Mark 5:21-43

- When Jesus had crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered around him while he was by the lake.
- Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came there. Seeing Jesus he fell at his feet.
- and pleaded earnestly with him, “my little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her so that she will be healed and live.”
- So Jesus went with him.

---

Mark 5:21-43

- A large crowd followed and pressed around him.
- And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years.
- She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse.
- When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his cloak,”

Mark 5:21-43

- because she thought, 'If I just touch his clothes I will be healed.'
- Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.
- At once Jesus realized that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, 'Who touched my clothes?'
- You see the people crowding against you,' his disciples answered, 'and yet you can ask, 'Who touched me?'

---

---

Mark 5:21-43

- But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it.
- Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet, and trembling with fear, told him the whole truth.
- He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.'
- While Jesus was still speaking, some men came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Mark 5:21-43

- 'Your daughter is dead,' they said. 'Why bother the teacher anymore?'
- Ignoring what they said, Jesus told the synagogue ruler, 'Don't be afraid, just believe.'
- He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James.
- When they came to the home of the synagogue ruler, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Mark 5:21-43

- He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and wailing?' The child is not dead, but asleep.'
- But they laughed at him.
- After he put them all out, he took the child's father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was.
- He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha koum!' (which means, Little girl, I say to you, get up!)

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Mark 5:21-43

- Immediately the girl stood up and walked around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished.
- He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and told them to give her something to eat."

Mark 5:24-29
 The transition begins
 Two people on a collision course with a transforming moment.

- So Jesus went with him. A large crowd followed and pressed around him. And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years. She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors, and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. Mark 5:32-34
 The GOD moment.
 Jesus needs to reward someone for their faith.

- But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it.
- Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet, and trembling with fear, told him the whole truth.
- He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.'

Mark 5:35
 The moment of transformation.
 Stepping into a new reality with God

- While Jesus was still speaking, some men came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler. 'Your daughter is dead,' they said. 'Why bother the teacher anymore?'
- NIV

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Mark 5:36
 Jesus always staying above the chaos of life, focuses on what the Father is doing
 His goal was to focus people UP where they should be: In the midst of the Fathers will.

- 'Ignoring what they said, Jesus told the synagogue ruler, 'Don't be afraid, just believe.'
